BACKGROUND

I am HANNAH VELTEN, trading as Red Letter Books, a limited company with company number 07733587 and with its registered office at Bay Tree Cottage, Fletching, East Sussex TN22 3TA

I provide Spiritual Grief Healing services (‘services’) and you and I wish to enter into this agreement to set out the terms and conditions that will apply in respect of the services to be provided by me to you.

1. Introduction

- 1.1. If you sign up for my services you agree to be legally bound by this contract.
- 1.2. If you use any of my free resources that I may offer from time to time you also agree to be legally bound by this contract as appropriate, excluding the clauses relating to payment and consumer rights legislation.
- 1.3. When signing up for my services or using any resources you also agree to be legally bound by:
 - 1.3.1. my website terms of use and privacy policy;
 - 1.3.2. extra terms which may add to, or replace, some of this contract, for example any specific written contract between us;
 - 1.3.3. any specific terms which apply to my services, for example programme or service descriptions which may be set out on the webpage for that programme or in email correspondence between us (‘service description’).

All these documents form part of this contract as though set out in full here.

2. Signing up for my services

- 2.1. Below, I set out how a legally binding contract to buy services between you and me is made:
- 2.1.1. You place your order at the end of the checkout process by clicking on the payment link on my site, by transferring payment to my bank account or by making a Paypal payment. Placing your order and making payment does not, however, mean that your order has been accepted.
 - 2.1.2. Any quotation given by me before you place an order for services is not a legally binding offer by me to supply such services. Any prices set out in a quotation remain valid for 14 days.
 - 2.1.3. When you decide to place an order for services with me, this is when you make a legal offer to buy such services from me.
 - 2.1.4. I may contact you to say that I do not accept your order, for example if I do not think my services are right for you or there has been a mistake in the pricing or description of the services, or my circumstances have changed since I gave you the quotation for the services .
 - 2.1.5. I shall only accept your order when I confirm this to you by sending you a confirmation email or start to provide the services, whichever happens earlier. At this point:
 - (a) a legally binding contract will be in place between you and me, and
 - (b) I shall start to carry out the services as set out in the relevant programme or services description.
- 2.2. Certain sections of this contract only apply to you and me if you are a 'consumer', that is if you are an individual acting for purposes which are wholly or mainly outside your business or profession. By law, the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 and Consumer Rights Act 2015 say that we must give you certain key information before a legally binding contract between you and us is made (see the summary box below). We shall give you this information in a clear and understandable in the main body of this contract together with the relevant services description, including any services description agreed between us in the future.

Summary of some of your key rights:

The Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 say that in most cases, you can cancel within 14 days. If you agree the services will start within this time, you will be charged for what you've used. See clause 6 below for full details

The Consumer Rights Act 2015 says:

- you can ask us to repeat or fix the services if they are not carried out with reasonable care and skill, or get some money back if we can't fix them
- if a price hasn't been agreed upfront, what you're asked to pay must be reasonable
- if a time hasn't been agreed upfront, they must be carried out within a reasonable time

We shall give you information on:

the main characteristics of the services you are buying who we are, where we are based and how you can contact us

the price of the services

the arrangements for payment, carrying out the services and the time by which we shall carry out the services

how to exercise your right to cancel the contract in the cooling off period if you are a consumer (where appropriate)

This means where we miss a timescale agreed with you, as long as we have used reasonable endeavours to meet the timescale, this will not entitle you to terminate the contract with us or ask for a refund or any form of compensation. If we have not agreed a specific timeframe with you we shall supply the services within a reasonable period of time.

We shall try to restart the services as soon as those events have been fixed. Examples of events which might be beyond our reasonable control include internet failure or other IT problems, if one of our team is ill or if you change the scope of the services you require from us.

- 4.5. If the performance of our obligations under these terms is prevented or delayed by any of your acts or omissions, or subcontractors, we shall not be liable for any costs or losses incurred by you that arise directly or indirectly from such prevention or delay.
- 4.6. You warrant that you have the right to disclose the confidential information and any materials to us and to authorise us to use them for the purpose of providing the services.

- 5.6. We shall ensure that a record is kept of the amount of time spent on the services.
- 5.7. We shall give you written notice at least [28] days in advance of any increase in our fees. If the increase is not acceptable to you, you may, within [10] days of the date of the notice, terminate this contract by giving written notice to us. In these circumstances the services will cease [28] days after the original notice of the price increase.
- 5.8. We shall be entitled to charge to you any sums reasonably incurred by us in recovering outstanding sums from you including professional and collection agency fees.

6. Cooling off period for consumers

- 6.1. If you are a consumer, you have the right subject to 6.4 below to cancel this contract within 14 days of signing up without giving any reason.

- 6.3. However, if you confirm to us you wish us to start to provide the services during the 14 day cancellation period then you lose your right to cancel. At this point our refund policy set out in clause 5.4 will apply.
- 6.4. Where we have agreed to supply our services to you on a specific date, you will not have a right to a cooling off period
